LIBRARY REPORT

To the Citizens of Conway:

The statistical report of the town libraries shows that the circulation of books and magazines has continued to increase. The greatest need of the libraries continues to be a larger amount of money for new books. In the juvenile department, this last year, only twenty new books were added. As a result, in the latter half of the year, the juvenile borrowers have noticeably decreased. For several years the library has received generous contributions of valuable books from The Conway Woman's Club, Mr. Clarence E. Eastman and Mrs. Ellis W. McKeen. It is largely due to these gifts that the library at Conway has maintained a creditable service.

A clever and interesting Book Pageant written by Miss Alice S. Pollard was presented in the Reading Room of the library during Children's Book Week. It depicted in colorful costume and apt rhyme thirty of the best liked characters in Juvenile Literature.

As regards the building, minor repairs have been made. The floors in the Reading Room, Stack Room and Librarian's Office have been refinished.

The Civil Works Administration provided a trained library worker for one month. This time was used to repair the books that were in need of re-binding. The outstanding project under the Civil Works Administration is the grading of the library lot. Clifford H. Craig is chairman of the committee that supervises this project. When the grading is completed there will be the foundation for a park that will add much to the value of this piece of town property.

Respectfully submitted,

RUTH A. KENNETT,
Secretary-Treasurer,
Conway Library Trustees.

PARKS

CONWAY VILLAGE PARK COMMISSION

Since last year's report, some progress has been made on the beautification of the Conway Village Park. Considerable shrubbery, all of which is in a thriving condition, was purchased of the Western Maine Forest Nursery at a reduced price.

While our books show a balance of $32.03 it is well to say that that amount is already under contract toward the beginning of a rock garden in the early spring.

NORTH CONWAY PARK COMMISSION

We have expended less than our appropriation the past year owing to fortunate conditions. It will be necessary however, to install a larger over-flow for the Memorial Pool in the spring.

The Park would necessarily have been sadly neglected if it had not been for so many of our kind citizens. Dr. Clarence Vaughan sponsored a "Park Clean-up Day" and solicited the various business places and public spirited men to give a day's labor, or furnish a man, at the Park. The response was generous, about thirty-five men worked all one day under the able supervision of Mr. William R. Carter. Various trucks were donated to help out the work. The change in appearance of the Park was most gratifying to all. After this we were able to keep it quite respectable by employing one man three days a week.

To all who helped in any way on "Park Clean-up Day," or at any other time during the past season, we express our deepest gratitude.

Respectfully submitted,

OWEN H. SPENCER,
JAMES P. CARTER,

Commissioners.

SUPERINTENDENT'S REPORT

To the School Board and Citizens of Conway:

The school district will close its fiscal year ending June 30th with all bills paid and a balance which will be too small and uncertain to be counted for reduction of next year's budget. It will be recalled that this year's budget assessment was reduced by $4,500 from savings and economies during the previous year.

The budget presented this year is essentially the same as last year except that provision is made for an additional teacher at North Conway and that a much larger amount must be raised for insurance due next year.

No appropriation was made for construction or major repairs for the current year, and the appropriation for minor repairs has hardly proved adequate for the expense of ordinary upkeep.

The school house at East Conway was in such poor condition that considerable work had to be done there which included the installation of a ventilating stove and sanitary toilets. These were taken from the school at Kearsarge which is not now being used.

The primary school at North Conway which includes grades one and two had a registration of fifty pupils during the fall term. In order to relieve this situation the grades were separated at the beginning of the winter term and Miss Verna Allard employed to teach the second grade. The large room upstairs in the north-east corner was put into condition and grades three and four were moved there thus making room for the second grade in the room downstairs. This arrangement should continue.

Our program of improving the physical equipment of the schools was abruptly halted three years ago for financial reasons. There is no point now in enumerating the things that we should like to do and that ought to be done. They are many and would be approved without debate in normal times. There is a point, however, in the fact that there is no real long-time economy in our present policy. The school buildings of the district are insured for nearly $130,000 and could not be replaced for $200,000. An annual charge to offset depreciation would necessarily be a considerable amount.

Miss Harriet Woodward last summer resigned her position as teacher at East Conway. Miss Woodward had taught in this school thirty-seven years and we are pleased in this report, to pay sincere tribute to her faithful service and worth.

Respectfully submitted,

JOHN H. FULLER.

REPORT OF HEADMASTER

Superintendent John H. Fuller:

Agreeable to your request I hereby submit a statistical report of Kennett High School for the past year.

The high school has had a total registration of 195; of which number 10 have left the school for the remainder of the year, four are registered in other schools in Maine, Massachusetts and New Hampshire, one entered late in the year from another school, found our courses entirely unrelated to her previous work, and was unable to make up her lost work, one left because of illness, one to accept employment, and three from no reported cause, probably lack of interest. This registration is divided as follows: Post Graduates, 3; Seniors, 49; Juniors, 43; Sophomores, 51; Freshmen, 49. We have in school 27 students who are behind their class, three of whom are retarded two years. The majority of these pupils are good citizens, but a few would do better to find some other employment when and if the opportunity offers.

The attendance record for the first 20 weeks of school shows 17,735 days attendance out of a possible 18,396 pupil days; and 651 days absence; with an average of 96.5% attendance. The cold weather of January and February with resulting illness caused a drop from the high average of the fall and early winter. There have been 110 cases of tardiness, and 27 dismissals for various reasons. Fifty-six students have been neither tardy nor absent for the half year.

The registration by subjects is as follows: Commercial subjects, 92; English, 196; French, 57; Latin, 62; Mathematics, 113; Science, 116; Social Science or History, 199.

A study of the scholastic records shows that four pupils maintained a semester average of 85% or better in five subjects, 28 in four, and 20 in three. This represents 28% of our active student body. We issue weekly honor lists of those pupils who earn grades of 90% or better in any subject. The weekly averages show 46 names in one course, 24 in two, 15 in three, and eight in four or five. It is pleasing to note that all of our post graduate students are on the semester honor list.

The reverse side of this picture is made less satisfactory by a new policy of grading all missed work as failed until made up. The weekly averages show that 49.6 pupils failed one course, 22.7 two courses, 6.1 three courses, and 2.8 failed in four courses. The semester averages show that 20 pupils failed in one course, 10 in two courses, six in three courses, and one in four courses. In other words, 20% of our students failed in one or more courses at midyear, or about 8.4% of all courses were failed. This failure list could be cut in half by greater cooperation of the parents in insisting that a passing grade be maintained if the pupil is to be allowed to spend time at motion pictures, dances, athletics not under school supervision, and other extra school activities. The school insists that pupils maintain at least a passing grade if they are to take part in its extra curricular activities, but has no control over such outside activities.

May I offer for your consideration the following suggestions, which I believe would improve the effectiveness of the school?

Many of our graduates are too young to find really productive employment, and either too young or lacking in financial means to continue their education away from home. Our present curriculum offers very limited opportunity for those who might wish to continue their studies at home, making them a fertile field for exploitation by correspondence schools, or still worse, for the evils of unemployment. Would it not be well to provide a course better adapted for their needs, perhaps the equivalent of the first year at the University in such subjects as English, Language, Mathematics and Science?

I should also recommend the re-introduction of a course in home making, to be required of at least all freshman girls, and a course in agriculture which might include such elements as vegetable gardening, soil management, and elementary animal husbandry. I believe that these three changes in curriculum could be made at an added expense of less than $2,000 annually, although they might necessitate the re-location of our laboratory.

May I once more express my appreciation of the friendliness and efficiency of your supervision, the co-operation of the School Board, and the really fine support of the town of Conway in the conduct of Kennett High School.

E. W. McKEEN.

REPORT OF NURSE

Mr. John H. Fuller,
Superintendent of Schools:

I submit the following report of the health work for 1933-34 to date.

Six hundred and eighty-eight pupils have been examined by our school physicians and much of the remedial treatment advised has been carried out.

A mild type of whooping cough has been prevalent.

Number of schools visited,	17
Number of visits to schools,	312
Number of visits to homes,	380
Class room inspections,	300
Individual inspections,	92
Accompanied to optometrist,	17
Accompanied to homes,	9
Number vaccinated (pupils from other states),	7
Excluded:

For Impetigo,	9
Scabies,	11
Sore throat,	21
Colds,	30
Pediculosis,	16

Because of the economic situation much time has been given to social work, in relieving need and securing assistance for corrective work, especially for defective vision, one of the most serious problems in our work.

The milk furnished by the Federal Fund has been a material benefit to many children.

HARRIET M. CURREN,
School Nurse.
